

Principal's Star Award

Term 3 Weeks 7 & 8

The STAR in Kakano is Sophia

Ever reliable, sensible and organised, Sophia can always be called upon to do any job. She always shows manaakitanga towards other children and is very focussed on making sure that everybody in Room 3 is happy and doing the right thing. She is an aspiring leader who enjoys taking on roles of responsibility and being in charge... Watch out Jacinda and Bill because in twenty years time, Sophia just might be running against you to be Prime Minister... and she'll win!

The STAR in Koru is Ben

Ben, like his affectionate nickname 'Ben Ten' has become a super role model in Room Six! He comes to school ready to learn and he wants to do 'better than before' with all his learning. Ben will happily take on advice from others and the teacher to improve his learning. Ben is kind to his classmates and teacher, and uses his initiative when caring for the classroom and school environment. He is always offering to help out and assist others who need help. Ben, you are a valuable member of Koru Syndicate and Central School!

The STAR in Poutama is Ella

Courageous and adventurous; willing to get up again after the horse bucks her off. Ella is an example of what a Year 4 learner should be. In class Ella follows instructions, gets on with the task and finishes it off in no time. She tries new strategies and will make changes to be better than before. Having Ella is always a bonus because she is encouraging and supportive by sharing her idea with everyone. Her positivity and competitiveness make her a valuable team player. Kei runga noa atu! - You are great!

The STAR in Rangi is Kay-Lynne

A million words could describe Kay-Lynne's behaviour in and out of the classroom! But one word can sum up this behaviour. EXTRAORDINARY! Kay-Lynne is a star student, who has a kind and caring manner towards others. Her great attitude shows her courage and commitment in her learning and the values she stands by. Whenever someone needs help Kay-Lynne is one of the go-to people! We are truly blessed to have Kay-Lynne in Ruma tekau ma ono! Mauria te pono—believe in yourself! (Maori Whakatauki). You are a star!
