

Principal's Star Award

Term 2 Weeks 3 & 4

The STAR in Kakano is Saramae

Saramae is one of those students who all the teachers want in their room. She has all the tools she needs for her learning organised, listens and follows instructions, starts her learning tasks straight away and makes sure that they are of a high standard. She is a great friend to her classmates and others in the school. Saramae offers to help others if they need it. Saramae, you have made a successful start to school and you can be very proud of this award. Hope you keep this up until you are twenty-one.

The STAR in Koru is Kobe

Kobe enters school every day with a huge smile and a cheery greeting! Then he comes into class full of enthusiasm for learning. He has a positive attitude towards his learning activities and strives to be 'Better Than Before'. Kobe shows Te Toa as he gives new learning and activities a go and then Te Manawanui as he sticks to his learning, giving it his best. You may think that his enthusiasm only happens in class, but no, you couldn't be more wrong! Outside class, at break and Crackerjack times, his energy carries on as he involves himself in a range of activities, showing Manaakitanga along the way.

The STAR in Poutama is Jasper

Where do you start when you are describing a leader, a role model, and a keen learner? Jasper you are all of these things and more. You consistently show Manaakitanga to your peers and in particular those in need. You display Te Toa when trying new things and always give 100%. Giving up is not an option for you. You show Te Manawanui towards your learning and like a sponge, you soak every opportunity up. Your attitude and eagerness to help make you stand out for all the right reasons. You are honest and forthcoming when providing positive feedback to others and their learning. Room 10 and Mr McNaught have been and are lucky to have you in their class. Keep up the outstanding effort. Ka mau te wehi!

The STAR in Rangi is Jasmin

Simply, Jasmin is a wolf in sheep's clothing. Not a bad wolf, but the opposite—an awesome one! While she is calm, humble, well-mannered, and caring on the outside (the sheep), Jasmin has an energetic fire on the inside that rages excellence, creativity, determination, and a deep desire to have success in all areas of her learning (the wolf). Jasmin is a positive role model for Te Manaakitanga, Te Toa, Te Manawanui and consistently shows these qualities in class. She is comfortable working on her own, just as much as she is working with her classmates. Jasmin shares her knowledge easily and freely, but also has a real special talent for listening and learning from what others have to say and share. Jasmin, you are a true star, not disguised as anything else, just a pure, bright shining star.
