

Principal's Star Award

Term 4 Weeks 3 & 4

The STAR in Kakano is Charlie

Charlie is just amazingly awesome! He comes to school each day sporting a cheerful smile and brings a positive attitude with him. He can always be relied on to do the right thing and is a great role model for other students. His dedication to his learning has been outstanding and he has made fantastic progress. I know all the teachers in Koru Syndicate are going to want him in their class. Keep shining brightly Charlie. You are an inspiration to others.

The STAR in Koru is Shannon

Every day Shannon comes to school ready to learn! She has a positive attitude towards her school work and strives hard with new learning. Shannon is always willing to 'give things a go' and she will happily take advice from the teacher to improve her learning. 'Helpful' should be her middle name! Shannon often uses her initiative, completing jobs around the class without be asked. She is kind and caring to others including the teacher! Shannon, you are a super role-model in Koru Syndicate and Smurf-tastic Room 6!

The STAR in Poutama is Emma

Emma is a shining example of what a Central kid should be. She is focused and always gives 100% in any task. Emma is committed and consistently strives to be better than before. Caring, Emma is that too. She is always willing to help others and help around the classroom. Emma takes on extra responsibilities with a smile and is not afraid to ask for help when she needs it. Emma shows courage when trying new things "it's too hard" is not in her school vocabulary. Emma you are an amazing role model . Ka mau te wehi!

The STAR in Rangi is Zac

A few words to describe Zac—observant, helpful, organised, a good sense of humour... the list could go on! He is a learner who is 100% committed to any task and has an immense pride in the work he produces. Zac has a special knack for articulating what he is learning with precision, and can self-assess with ease. Zac has developed wonderful internal motivation over the year and has excellent problem solving skills. And to top it all off, he always makes sure that his hair is looking its absolute best! Way to go Zac—you are a star!
