

Principal's Star Award

Term 1 Weeks 4 & 5

The STAR in Kakano is Madison

Madison, since the start of the year, you have been an outstanding member of Room 4. You have been a leader and helped all of your classmates when they needed it. You have been a role model to others, for your exemplary behaviour. Your effort has been fantastic, you have listened well, and asked sensible questions. Madison, you have exemplified the three C's: Courage, care, and commitment has been your mantra. Continue to do your best throughout 2016!

The STAR in Koru is Mollie

Mollie has made a great start to the school year. She shows courage with new learning tasks and is trying hard to give new challenges her best. Mollie has shown super-duper commitment to being a role model with her listening and manners on the mat. She is respectful to adults, and cares for her classmates and class environment.

Mollie, you are definitely an asset to Smurf-tastic Six!

The STAR in Poutama is Jack

Jack is the role model to beat all role models. He continually shows his three Cs. He shows manaakitanga to his talking buddy through his team work and sharing of information and knowledge. Throughout the day he is always committed to his learning and our playing, especially in our new tag games we are learning. Jack also shows his courage when things don't quite go to plan. He is a fabulous member of Room 11 and a star within Poutama.

The STAR in Rangi is Jessica

What a positive atmosphere you bring with you wherever you go, Jessica. You sure are an asset to the Central School team. If any job needs to be done, Jessica is ready and willing to give it a go. You regularly show the Central Cs and stand up for what is right. It is hard not to catch your contagious smile and enthusiasm in your learning and activities around the school. Keep being yourself and you will go far!
